25X1 4. [] Met with Robert Smart and delivered to him the letter from General Carter to Mr. Vinson of 30 August 1962 which enclosed a revised early retirement legislative proposal. Mr. Vinson had requested this redraft. Earlier General Carter had talked with Mr. Vinson saying it was ready and Mr. Vinson had suggested we send it right up. I requested Mr. Smart to discuss our entire proposal with Mr. Vinson so that I would be in the position to advise General Carter and Mr. McCone precisely where we stand. Mr. Smart promised to do so. Smart had indicated he planned to have [] (a former naval officer who had served a tour with CIA) analyze the bill and requested our assistance in preparing the sectional analysis which we are doing.

25X1 6. [] Met with Mrs. Joann Mills, in the office of Representative Paul G. Rogers, concerning his letter of 24 August 1962 on release of American defense information through the American press and other news media. Advised Mrs. Mills that this was a matter not within the normal responsibilities of the CIA. She thanked me for dropping by and said she would raise the question with the Department of Defense. No response to the letter will be expected.
